

Lift the ban on cell phones, personally I find it amusing that there is a ban in the first place. Most phones would get no reception, being that high over the towers. Secondly don't the airlines have a monopoly on phone service??? The only available phone's charge an arm and a leg to make a call from the plane?